This is farmer Fred.

Here he is on his tractor working on his farm.

The next day the farmer built a hut for the rabbit. Now the rabbit is farmer's pet and lives on the farm.

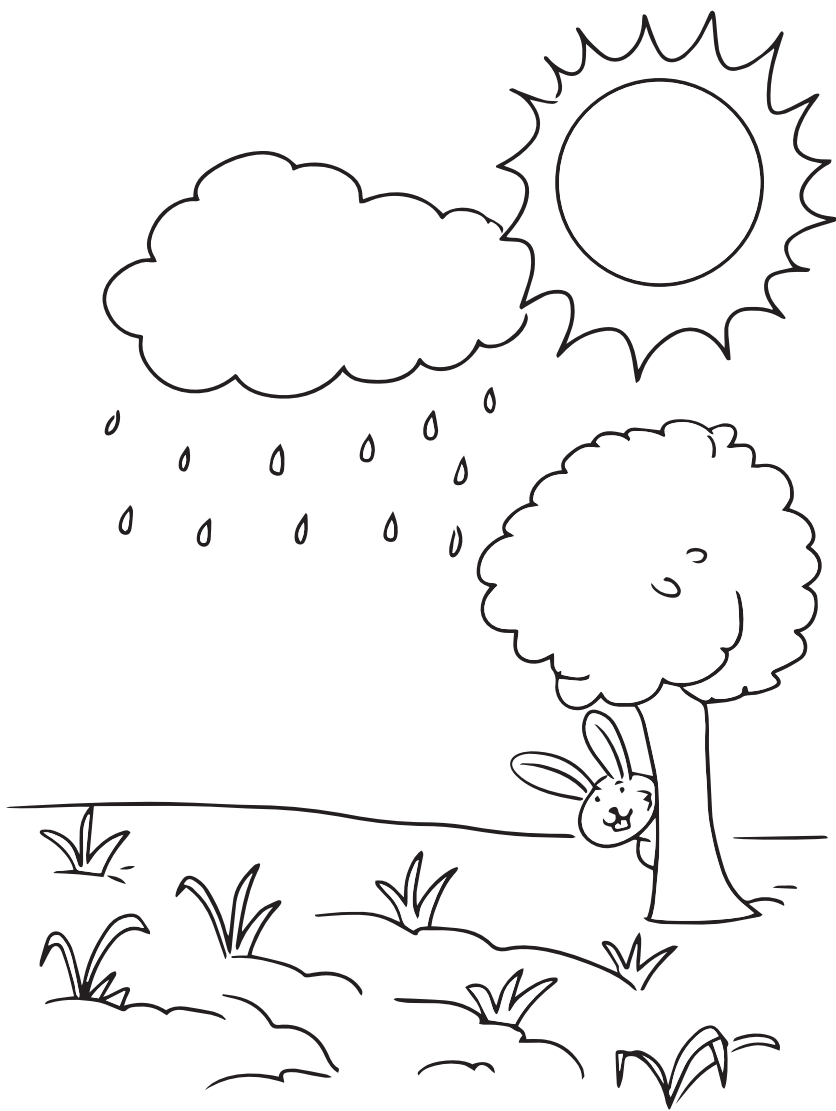

Every day the farmer gives the rabbit lots of carrots to eat.

The rabbit and the farmer are both very happy.

The farmer wanted to grow some vegetables.

One day the farmer planted some seeds in his field.

Just as the rabbit reached the cabbage, the farmer quickly swung his net and caught the rabbit!

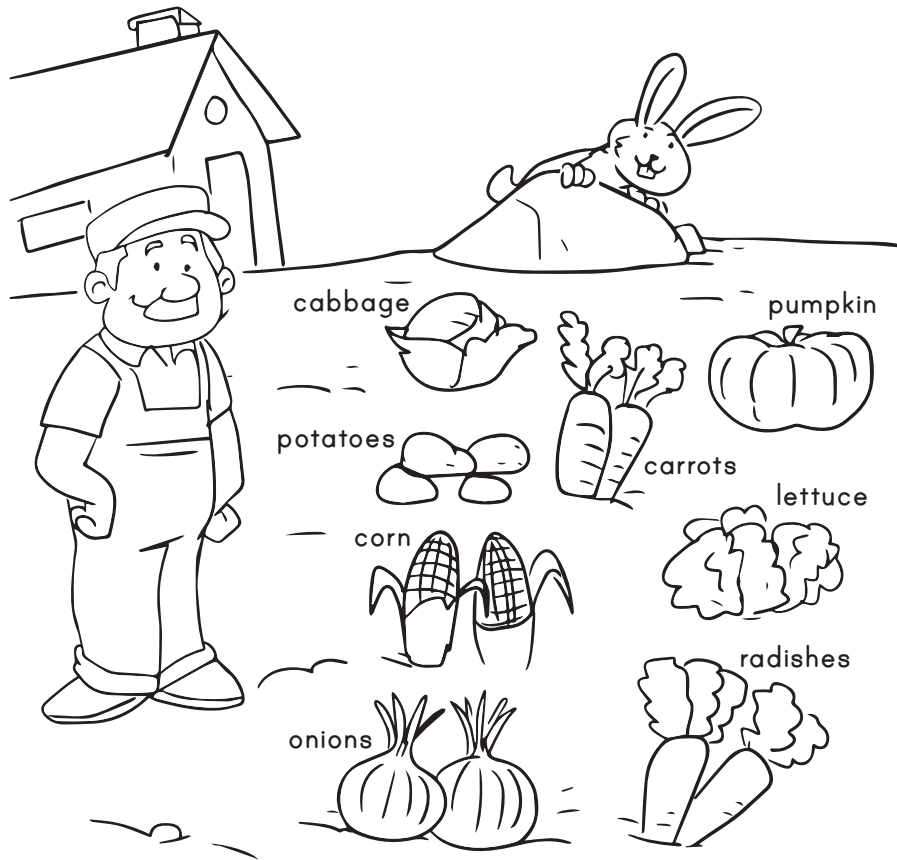

“Now I know why my vegetables keep disappearing!”, said the farmer excitedly.

The farmer took the rabbit home.

Some days it was sunny and some days it was rainy.

After a few weeks the vegetables started to grow.

All of a sudden a rabbit appeared on the farmer's vegetable field.

It looked around but didn't see the farmer hiding behind the rock.

Then it hopped over to the cabbage.

Every day, the vegetables grew more and more until the farmer had a field full of wonderful vegetables.

They were almost ready to pick.

The farmer was very happy.

The farmer had a plan.

That night he waited behind a rock.

He waited and waited for a long time.

One day the farmer went to check on his vegetables.

“Oh no!”, exclaimed the farmer. “The carrots and lettuce have gone!”.

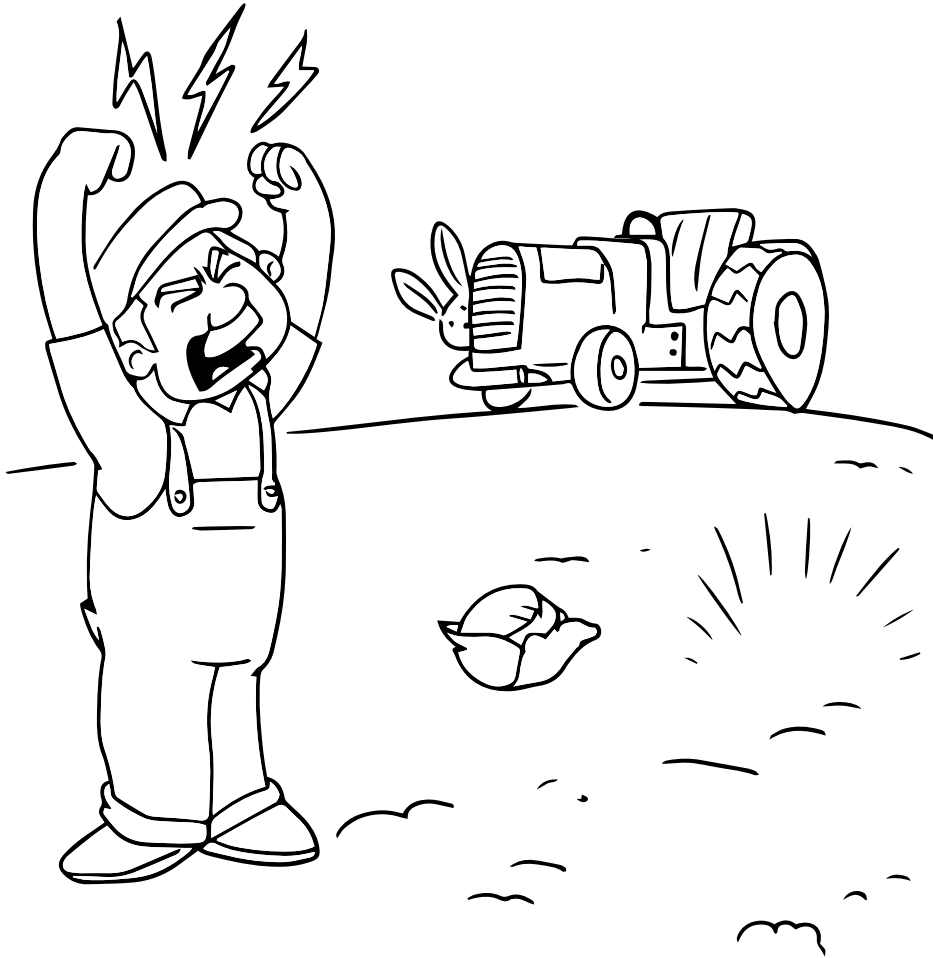

The farmer was very shocked.

The next day the farmer checked his vegetables again.

“Oh no!”, shouted the farmer. “Where is my pumpkin? The pumpkin has gone as well!”.

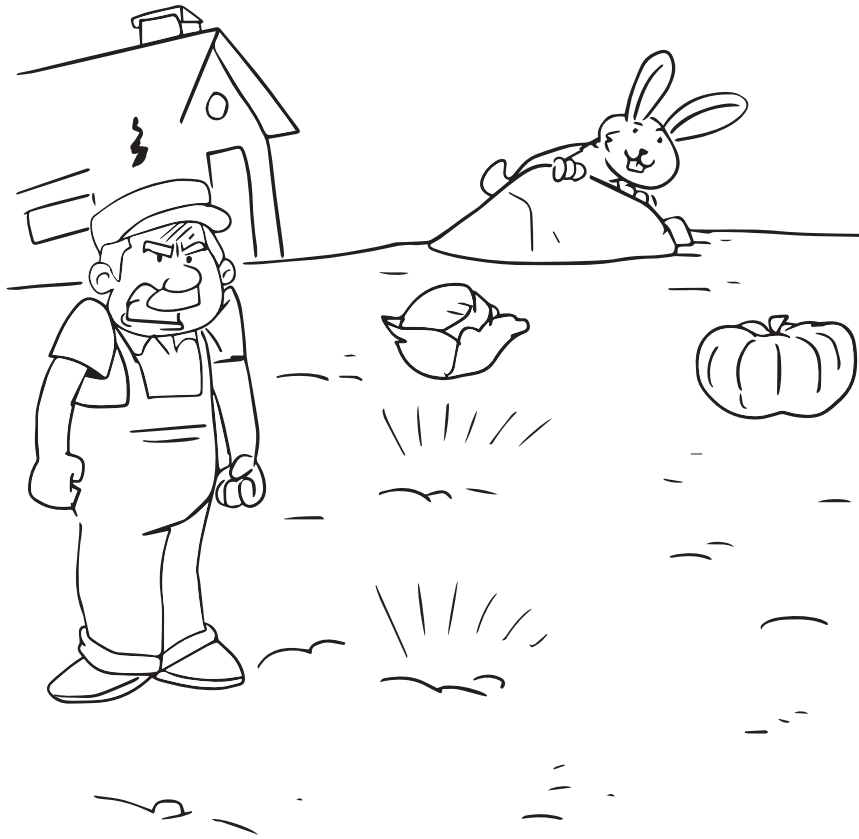

The farmer was furious.

The next day the farmer went to check on his vegetables again.

“Oh no!”, said the farmer. “The onions and radishes have disappeared!”.

The farmer was very confused.

The following day the farmer once again went to check on his vegetables.

“Oh no!”, exclaimed the farmer. “The corn and potatoes have disappeared!”.

The farmer was very angry.
